VICTIM OF HEART FAILURE

W. S. Simson Dies At His Home Saturday Night—Funeral Wednesday Afternoon.

W. S. Simson died at his home in this city Saturday night, his death being due to heart failure.

Mr. Simson was born in Eton, Ohio, February 10, 1854. In 1874 he was married to Miss Alice Zinn and two years later he moved to Kansas, where he was engaged for a number of years as a professor in the Normal School at Minneapolis, Kansas. His entire teaching career extended over a period of 25 years. His health finally broke down and he was compelled to travel extensively in an effort to regain it.

About two years ago he came west to Taholah, Washington, and after a short residence there moved to this city, where he remained until the time of his death.

He is survived by his wife and two daughters and two sons. The children are: Mrs. C. L. Harper, of Sharon Springs, Kansas; Mrs. Van Voorhis, of Taholah, Washington; J. D. Simson, of Chicago, and Claud Simson, who is at present living in Washington.

The funeral will be held at the family home tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. lodge, of which Mr. Simson was a member. His son-in-law, Van Voorhis arrived from his home in Washington today to attend the last sad rites over the remains of the deceased.

Mr. Simson was a man of great intelligence and learning. He possessed social qualities that won him many friends in Dallas during his short residence here, and his death will be a source of sincere regret to all who knew him.

PEDDLERS

WISE TALKS BY U. S. LOUGHARYS
OFFICE BOY

Any peddlers at your house of late?
Been some in town? When people can't sell their stuff any other way they send out a peddler or solicitor.
As your good friend, I want to tell you: Don't buy of peddlers. They don't help Dallas any. You pay them more for the same quality of goods than you pay your local merchants.
Peddlers only sell you the stuff they make the most profit on and not what you want at a reasonable profit.
Everybody kicks if the local merchant don't carry whatever they want and the price must be O. K. Don't buy apples, etc., of peddlers that are not marketable. We will sell you good ones as cheap or cheaper. Don't pay peddlers $2 for a sack of onions. We have the last month sold 100 pounds of onions for $1.50. We will sell you the Boyd Tea and Coffee house 40c coffee for 30c.

MUNSING UNDERWEAR

FOR

Men == Women == Children

Twenty different qualities. Every required style and size. There isn't a question about the better comfort and value of MUNSING UNDERWEAR. It's simply a question of how long it will be before you find it out for yourself. MUNSING UNDERWEAR is made to fit—tailored as it were to fit the form and finished as no other underwear is finished. There are no bunglesome seams, no clumsily worked buttonholes, no loosely knit ankles or cuffs, and best of all they're always just the same shape and retain their elasticity until they're worn out, doesn't matter how often they have been to the laundry.

This is the only place in Polk county carrying this splendid line.
